Subject: Ordinance ____: An Ordinance Designating the Cora Porter Home as a Local Historic Landmark at 106 E Monroe Street in O'Fallon, Illinois, Pursuant to the Requirements of Chapter 151 of the O'Fallon Code of Ordinances – First Reading

List of committees that have reviewed: The Community Development Committee reviewed and recommended unanimously to approve the landmark designation of the Cora Porter Home at 106 E Monroe Street.

Background:

- Local Historic Landmark Designation for the Cora Porter Home located at 106 E Monroe Street.
- Following designation as a Landmark Site, any demolition, new construction or alteration to any Landmark Site or to any building or structures within a Landmark Site, the owner must refer plans for the alteration to the Historic Preservation Commission for review and comment. The Commission is responsible for suggesting alterations to Landmark Sites which require minimal alterations and which meet the Secretary of Interior's Standards.
- The property meets the following designation criteria: 3. Its identification with a person who significantly contributed to the development of the community, county, state, or nation; 5. Its embodiment of elements of design, detailing, materials or craftsmanship that renders it architecturally significant or innovative; and 8. Its representation of a sense of time and place unique to the City.
- The Historic Preservation Commission reviewed the application request and recommends approval of the Local Historic Landmark.
