Subject: City Council Right-of-Review: Special Use Permit for Starbucks Drive-thru

List of committees that have reviewed:

Special Use Permits require the approval of only the Planning Commission. At their meeting on May 22, 2007, the Planning Commission approved the Special Use Permit for the Starbucks drive-thru on Central Park Drive, which was consistent with staff's recommendation. The City Council has a 21-day right-of-review over the Planning Commission's decision. This will expire on June 12, 2007. If the City Council does not take action by then, the decision of the Planning Commission stands.
